Re: American Steamship Owners Mutual P & I Ass'n, Inc. v. Virgin Gorda Transport
Ltd., et al, 08 Civ. 4332 (SAS)

Dear Judge Scheindlin:

We are attorneys for plaintiff in this Rule B attachment action and we write to request that the conference scheduled to take place this afternoon at 4:30 p.m. be adjourned. The reason that an adjournment is requested is that the defendant has not yet appointed any counsel in New York and thus, we do not anticipate that defendant will appear at the conference.

We are continuing to hold security in the amount of $40,000.00 at Wachovia Bank and continue to serve the garnishee banks daily with the writ of attachment. However, to date, no appearance has been made by the defendant.

On July 2, 2008, the defendant, through its broker, made a voluntary payment to plaintiff in the amount of $15,997.68 in partial settlement. However, to date, no further payments have been forthcoming and no further settlement discussions have taken place.
